

DOCTOR TO AID VETERANS.

Dr. Isaac Stalberg of Atlantic City Will Organize Medical Unit in Capital

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 14.—
A medical unit to care for the bonus army in Washington will be organized by Dr. Isaac Stalberg of this city, who held the rank of a Lieutenant in the United States Army during the World War.

Dr. Stalberg left here today for the capital, accompanied by Dr.
David Latta, local osteopath. Dr.
Stalberg had considerable experience in various army camps and was recently appointed medical inspector for the New Jersey State Athletic Commission.

The New York Times

Published: June 15, 1932

Copyright © The New York Times